GRAND HAVEN, MUSKEGON AND GRAND RAPIDS

Muskegon is a rapidly growing city with splendid hotels, thriving industries and excellent community advantages. The adjacent beaches and countryside offer summer sport of every description amid surroundings unsurpassed for scenery and comfort. Motoring is at its best on well-built, uncongested highways. Ferry your automobile and save 200 miles of highway travel.

Grand Rapids, metropolis of western Michigan, is most comfortably reached by Goodrich steamships to Muskegon, Grand Haven or Holland. Greyhound coaches make connection with all steamers landing passengers in the center of Grand Rapids.

Grand Haven, Spring Lake, Ferrysburg and surrounding points have become the Mecca of thousands seeking healthy out-of-door summer life.

HOLLAND, SAUGATUCK AND GRAND RAPIDS

Thousands of summer cottagers need no introduction to the beautiful Black Lake region surrounding Holland and Macatawa, reached from Chicago by the excellent steamship service of the Goodrich Lines.

Amid these charming surroundings are located many of the finest summer homes, while summer travelers, attracted in large numbers, are cared for hospitably in the hotels and inns in the vicinity. Saugatuck, a quaintly fascinating little village with many beautiful summer homes and cottages and accommodations for tourists, lies a few miles to the south at the mouth of the beautiful Kalamazoo river. It is reached from the Holland docks by direct motor coach service.
